

December 2007

MIAMI | ATLANTA | DETROIT | SIXTEENMAG.COM

JASLENE

AMERICA'S NEXT TOP MODEL

Arabesque

This pair of horn and silver "Arabesque" earrings by Delia Pascal for Etnyka will prove that your home is not the only thing that should be ornately decorated this season. With years of experience in the cultural and aesthetic values of Mexico and South America, Pascal brings her artisanal techniques to each and every piece she creates.

Delia Pascal "Arabesque" earrings, $69, available at etnyka.com.

So Icy

Treat your cell phone to a luxurious new case by Ari Soffer this holiday season. These luxe leather pouches are outfitted with either a fleur de lis or a skull motif made using pave-cut diamonds. Each case is custom made, so be the first to show off this stylish accessory.

Ari Soffer leather cell phone case, from $3,955 to $5,595, available at saleather.com or call 310.849.9272 for custom orders.

Hearst Handbags

Lydia Hearst, the lovely publishing heir-turned-fashion model, is teaming up with the global sportslifestyle brand PUMA to create the PUMA Lydia Holiday Bag. The handbag is modeled after the brand's French 77 Racket Bag and features new playful and luxurious attributes that reflect Hearst's personality. Get your hands on one of these soon as they are only being sold until February 15, 2008.

PUMA Lydia Holiday Bag, $125, available at PUMA stores nationwide.